

Habitat—Where do they live?

What do they eat?

What are their predators?

How many are there left?

How can we help protect them?

Where are other NZ Dotterels found in NZ?

How often do they breed?

Why is the mining company interested in them?

How do they protect their young?

What places are they found in NZ?

Are there any other type of dotterels?

Design something that would help protect the Dotterel from predators.

Are they native?

How does the mining company look after Dotterels?

NZ Dotterel

